

Dining

With more than 8,000 dining options, the Dallas area has something to please even the pickiest of palates. Whether you're searching for a posh spot or something more prudent, you're sure to find mouth-watering meals at every turn.

- Southern charm, scrumptious cuisine and live music are the perfect blend at House of Blues. Take in an evening concert or get inspired as you join others for their famous Sunday Gospel brunch.

- Just north of downtown, is Uptown – a trendy collection of boutiques, eateries, pubs and shopping spots. Stroll the streets or hop on the free McKinney Avenue Trolley to explore the area. For dinner try Sambuca, a great place to see and be seen, where live music in the form of jazz, blues, crooner, or soft rock add to the already sophisticated atmosphere.
