

Shopping

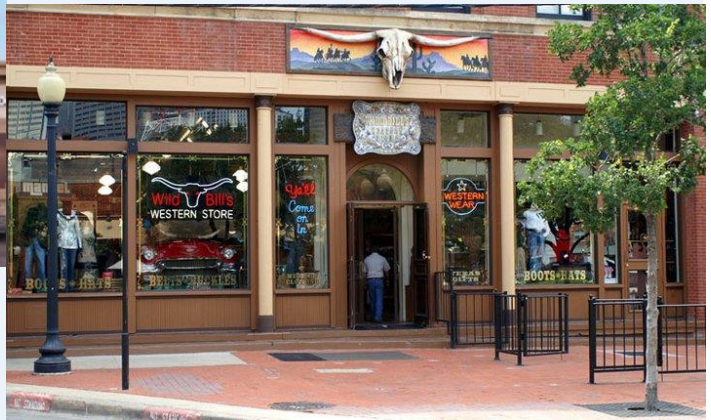

Dallas has been called the shopping capital of the Southwest, and after a visit to one of Dallas' premier shopping districts, we know you will agree. No matter what your style is, Dallas has the retail therapy you need.

- Wild Bill's specializes in unique, custom western wear and once you make a visit to Wild Bill's Western Store in Dallas' historic West End District, you'll see just what we mean. Stop in to have a custom fitted Stetson or some unique, hand-crafted boots. Who knows, you may even get a chance to meet the man himself.

- Highland Park Village is a designated National Historic Landmark and is the nation's first planned shopping center. The developers traveled to Spain, Mexico and California to find inspiration for the beautiful Spanish Mediterranean architecture. Highland Park Village boasts some of the most revered boutiques and shops in the world, including Chanel, Ralph Lauren and Jimmy Choo.

- NorthPark Center offers the unique combination of Dallas/Fort Worth's finest selection of boutiques and restaurants surrounded by world-renowned 20th-century art and award winning architecture. Here shoppers will find an incredible assortment of department stores from Dillard's to Barneys New York, numerous specialty stores, restaurants and an AMC 15-screen movie theater.
